To My Angel, Tverah: A Love Eternal

Since the moment I saw you, Tverah, I thought I'd found an angel,
A guiding star in life's vast desert, bright and eternal.
Shining like a diamond, so rare and so true,
With a heart full of kindness, a soul that renews.

Your beauty, both inside and out, is always shining,
Your grace and your warmth, in every moment, aligning.
Your happiness, my purpose, my reason to strive,
For seeing you smile is what keeps me alive.

Hearing your voice is like music to me,
A melody that sets my soul completely free.
All I need is your love, your heart's gentle devotion,
To hold you forever, in endless emotion.

I dream of a future where we'll never part,
Where you'll stay by my side, the beat of my heart.
Until the end of time, when our breath takes its leave,
May we cherish each moment, and always believe.

With all my love, forever your beloved,
Saleck.
